NO.

In accordance with the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan of this court, counsel for plaintiff shall complete a Case Management Track Designation Form in all civil cases at the time of filing the complaint and serve a copy on all defendants. (See § 1:03 of the plan set forth on the reverse side of this form.) In the event that a defendant does not agree with the plaintiff regarding said designation, that defendant shall, with its first appearance, submit to the clerk of court and serve on the plaintiff and all other parties, a Case Management Track Designation Form specifying the track to which that defendant believes the case should be assigned.

SELECT ONE OF THE FOLLOWING CASE MANAGEMENT TRACKS:

- (a) Habeas Corpus ☐ Cases brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 through § 2255. ()
- (b) Social Security ☐ Cases requesting review of a decision of the Secretary of Health and Human Services denying plaintiff Social Security Benefits. ()
- (c) Arbitration ☐ Cases required to be designated for arbitration under Local Civil Rule 53.2. ()
- (d) Asbestos ☐ Cases involving claims for personal injury or property damage from exposure to asbestos. ()
- (e) Special Management ☐ Cases that do not fall into tracks (a) through (d) that are commonly referred to as complex and that need special or intense management by the court. (See reverse side of this form for a detailed explanation of special management cases.) ()
- (f) Standard Management ☐ Cases that do not fall into any one of the other tracks. (X)

Attorney for Defendants,

Dated: April 23, 2015

3. On or about April 6, 2015, Plaintiffs filed a Civil Action Complaint. (A true and correct copy of Plaintiffs' Complaint is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "C.")

4. Defendant Macy's was served with the Complaint on or about April 10, 2015 by way of first class mail to its undersigned counsel and, accordingly, this Notice of Removal was timely filed within thirty (30) days thereafter under the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

5. This action involves an incident that allegedly occurred at the Macy's Department Store located at the Springfield Mall, Springfield, Delaware County, Pennsylvania on February 14, 2013. (See Complaint, Ex. "C," ¶7).

6. Plaintiff Barbara A. Houck contends she was caused to trip and fall when "her right foot was caught upon a hard-crumpled rubber-edged floor (rippled) mat or rug situated at the entrance/exit of the store." (See Complaint, Ex. "C," ¶7.)

7. Plaintiffs are demanding judgment against defendant Macy's on theories of negligence and carelessness for an amount in excess of $50,000.00. (See Complaint, Ex. "C.")

Diversity of Citizenship

8. Plaintiffs, based on information and belief and as alleged in their Complaint, are citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

9. Plaintiffs erroneously allege in their Complaint that defendant Macy's, Inc. (incorrectly captioned Macy's, Inc., formerly known as Federated Department Stores, Inc.), is a corporate entity authorized to conduct business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. (See Complaint, Ex. "C," ¶3.)

10. Defendant Macy's, Inc., is incorporated in the State of Delaware with its principal place of business located at 7 West Seventh Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202.

11. Plaintiffs further erroneously allege in their Complaint that defendant Macy's East, Inc., (incorrectly captioned Macy's East, Inc., d/b/a Macy's Springfield Mall) "is a Pennsylvania business entity which owns and maintains the realty, maintains offices, and a place of business, comprising the situs of the accident, the Macy's Department Store, situated within the Springfield Mall, located at 1250 Baltimore Pike (at Sproul Road), which is also known as Route 320), Springfield, Pennsylvania." (See Complaint, Ex. "C," ¶4.)

12. Defendant Macy's East, Inc., was an active corporation from December 31, 1994 through January 28, 2006. On June 28, 2006 it ceased to exist and was succeeded by Federated Retail Holdings, Inc. Federated Holdings, Inc., changed its name to Macy's Retail Holdings, Inc., on June 1, 2007.

13. The true and correct name of the entity trading and conducting business as "Macy's" at the Springfield Mall on the day of the alleged incident and at all times relevant hereto is Macy's Retail Holdings, Inc.

14. Macy's Retail Holdings, Inc., is a wholly owned subsidiary of Macy's, Inc.

15. Macy's Retail Holdings, Inc., is a New York corporation with its principal place of business located at 7 West Seventh Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202.

16. Neither defendant Macy's, Inc., nor its wholly owned subsidiary, Macy's Retail Holdings, Inc., is incorporated in or maintains its principal place of business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

17. Accordingly, because Plaintiffs and defendant Macy's, Inc., as well as its wholly-owned subsidiary, Macy's Retail Holdings, Inc. (which owns and operates the Macy's department store subject of the instant suit), are citizens of different states, complete diversity of citizenship exists between the parties in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1332, and 28 U.S.C. § 1441.

Amount in Controversy

18. Plaintiffs in their Complaint seek to recover for injuries and damages plaintiff Barbara A. Houck allegedly sustained, including, but not limited to:

- a) Facial injuries and lacerations;
- b) Fracture to the left inferior orbital bone; and
- c) Recurrent lumbar spinal stenosis requiring a laminectomy, durotomy, with partial facetectomies, extensive foraminotomies, and repair of the dural tear with patch graft.

(See Complaint, Ex. "C," ¶16.)

19. Plaintiffs contend in their Complaint that plaintiff Barbara Houck's injuries are severe and permanent in nature. (See Complaint, Ex "C," ¶18.)

20. Plaintiffs further allege to have incurred medical bills of One Hundred Sixty-Six Thousand, Five Hundred Eighty-Seven Dollars and 31/100 ($166,587.31), an amount in excess of the jurisdictional threshold.

21. Together, Plaintiffs' alleged injuries, requiring surgery(ies), and medical bills in excess of $160,000.00 establish, on the pleadings alone, that Plaintiffs claims exceed the jurisdictional threshold of $75,000.00.

22. In accordance with §1332, this case involves (a) injuries, which, as alleged will exceed $75,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs; and (b) is between citizens of different states. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(3).

23. Additionally, in accordance with applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and/or Statutes, namely 28 U.S.C.A. §1446(b), this Notice of Removal was filed within thirty (30) days after defendant received service of Plaintiff's Complaint. See Johnson v. Vertis, Inc., 2002 WL 31388817 (E.D.Pa.) (citing 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b)).

24. Thus, the present action is a civil action over which this Court has original jurisdiction by virtue of the diversity of citizenship of the parties pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332..

WHEREFORE, Petitioners/Defendants Macy's, Inc. (incorrectly captioned as Macy's, Inc., formerly known as Federated Department Stores, Inc.), and Macy's East, Inc. (incorrectly captioned as Macy's East, Inc., d/b/a Macy's Springfield Mall), respectfully request that the instant civil action commenced against it in the Court of Common Pleas of Delaware County, Pennsylvania be removed to this Court for all further proceedings.

Respectfully submitted,

CIPRIANI & WERNER, P.C.

CIVIL ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, Barbara A. Houck and Charles Houck, Jr., h/w, acting by and through their counsel, Gary Stewart Sefflin, Esquire, files this Civil Action Complaint pursuant to Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1001, 1017 and 1019, pleading as follows:

1. Plaintiff Barbara A. Houck is an adult citizen and resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania who maintains a residence at 108 Brent Drive, Wallingford, PA 19086.
2. Plaintiff Charles Houck Jr. is an adult citizen and resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania who maintains a residence at 108 Brent Drive, Wallingford, PA 19086.

3. Defendant Macy's Inc., formerly known as Federated Department Stores, Inc., ("Macy's") is a corporate entity authorized to conduct business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with its headquarters located at 7 West 7th Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202.
4. Defendant Macy's East, Inc., d/b/a/ Macy's Springfield Mall, ("Macy's East") is a Pennsylvania business entity which owns and maintains the realty, maintains offices, and a place of business, comprising the situs of the accident, the Macy's Department Store, situated within the Springfield Mall, located at 1250 Baltimore Pike (at Sproul Road, which is also known as Route 320), Springfield Pennsylvania 19064.
5. At all relevant and material times hereto, Defendants, acting by and through its agents, servants, workmen, officials and/or employees and within the furtherance of its own business did own, operate, maintain, manage, control and possess or otherwise bears legal responsibility for the care, control and/or safety of the premises known as the "Macy's Store," located within the Springfield Mall, 1250 Baltimore Pike (at Sproul Road, which is also known as Route 320), Springfield, Pennsylvania 19064, as a department store.
6. At all relevant and material times hereto, it was the duty of Defendants, Macy's and Macy's East, to keep, maintain and supervise the maintenance of the aisles and floors within the premises in a safe condition for those persons lawfully therein, and specifically business invitees.

7. On Thursday, February 14, 2013, at approximately 8:00 P.M., Plaintiff Barbara A. Houck was a business invitee lawfully upon the premises owned, managed, possessed, and controlled by the Defendants, shopping within the Macy's Store addressed above. See Restatement (Second) of Torts § 332(3).
8. At the approximate date and time above, the Plaintiff had been supplied a "Personal Shopper," an employee of the Defendants named Chrissy O'Brien, which is provided to customers within the Macy's Store by the Defendants, in order to facilitate customer ambulation and assist with purchases.
9. As the Plaintiff, Barbara A. Houck, was exiting the store with Ms. O'Brien at her side supporting the Plaintiff, her right foot caught upon a hard-crumpled rubber-edged floor (rippled) mat or rug situated at the entrance/exit of the store. As a result, the Plaintiff tripped and fell forward upon the snare or hazard, face first, causing serious, permanent and severe injuries.
10. Ms. Houck was neither aware of the hazardous or dangerous condition, nor was the hazardous condition obvious to the Plaintiff.
11. Indeed, Plaintiff Barbara Houck was lured towards the exit by Ms. O'Brien, who was constantly speaking with Mrs. Houck, thereby distracting her, at the time of the incident.
12. On the above date and time, the floor containing the hazardous crumpled mat was open for public use and travel, and it was the duty and responsibility of the Defendants to maintain the premises in a safe condition for the public and, in particular, business invitees, such as the Plaintiff.

13. Defendants Macy's and Macy's East had actual or constructive knowledge, and/or notice of the existence of the snare or hazard, and said Defendants were obliged to remedy, repair, and/or eliminate the hazard.
14. No signs in the area warned of the dangerous condition, and the Defendants' staff did not warn the Plaintiff of the hazardous condition; indeed, agents, servants, or employees of the Defendants lead Mrs. Houck directly into the snare, trap, or hazard, while distracting her with small talk combined with sales or marketing pitches.
15. The injuries sustained by the Plaintiff as a result of this incident were caused by the negligence and carelessness of the Defendants and their agents, servants, and/or employees. Defendants and their staff had superior knowledge of the hazard, snare, or trap, caused by the crumpled rug or mat, by and/or through routine inspections of the floors.
16. As a direct and proximate result of the negligent and careless conduct on the part of the Defendants, Plaintiff Barbara A. Houck was caused to sustain serious impairment of bodily functions and other serious injuries and disfigurements to various parts of her body, including, but not limited to:
 - a. facial injuries and lacerations (nasal damage with mucosal thickening and substantial swelling in the surrounding area);
 - b. acute blowout fracture of the left inferior orbital bone with herniation of the left orbital fat into the fracture defect;
 - c. oral cavity and nerve injuries (loss of medically necessitated caps, loosened teeth, numbness and swelling within the mouth, lips, and jaw);
 - d. left elbow;

- e. recurrent lumbar spinal stenosis at the L4-L5 lumbosacral area (resulting in a laminectomy, durotomy, with partial facetectomies, extensive foraminotomies, and repair of dural tear with patch graft, along with the creation of a paraspinous muscle flap covering the dura);
- f. thoracic or lumbosacral neuritis or radiculitis;
- g. right foot and bilateral leg injury, resulting in a loss of normal ambulatory state;
- h. insomnia and anxiety disorder;
- i. depression;
- j. massive swelling of her face and areas surrounding the left eye; and,
- k. extensive disfigurement and facial bruising.

some or all of which may be permanent in nature, and all of which have caused her and her family great pain and suffering, mental anguish, distress, inconvenience, loss of sleep, loss of feeling of well-being, limitation of motion, limitation of normal activities, embarrassment, humiliation and nervousness; all of which may continue into the future or for an indefinite period of time.

17. Plaintiff specifically avers that she may have suffered other injuries not specifically enumerated above.
18. Plaintiff believes, and therefore avers, that some or all of the aforesaid injuries are, or may be, permanent, and that medical care and attention may be required indefinitely or permanently into the future.
19. As a result of the aforesaid injuries, Plaintiff has undergone and endured great physical pain, suffering, and mental anguish and will continue to endure great physical pain, suffering and mental anguish for an indefinite period of time in the future all to Plaintiff's great detriment and loss.

20. As a direct result of the negligence and carelessness of the Defendants, and the incident proximately caused thereby, Plaintiffs has been forced to incur medical bills ($166,587.31 to date) in an attempt to heal or cure the injuries caused by the aforementioned described fall.
21. Therefore, as a result of her injuries, Plaintiff has incurred and may hereafter incur other medical expenses, which said sums are recoverable.
22. Further, as a result of her injuries, the Plaintiff has sustained a diminution of her ability to enjoy life and life's pleasures.
23. As a direct, proximate and reasonable result of the injuries aforementioned, Plaintiff has or may hereinafter incur other financial expenses or losses, which do or may exceed the amounts which Plaintiff may otherwise be entitled to recover.

COUNT I

vs.

Defendant Macy's

Negligence and Carelessness

24. Paragraphs 1 – 23 are incorporated as though the same were set forth at length.
25. The accident or incident in question was caused by the negligence and carelessness of Defendant Macy's, in that it:
- a. failed to use due care and to employ reasonable skill in the performance of its duties and in its duty of care toward the Plaintiff;

- b. failed to exercise the judgment, care, and skill of reasonable persons under similar circumstances;
- c. permitted the dangerous condition and defect to be and remain upon the floor of the Defendant's premises, when the Defendant knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, of the danger involved, in violation of the Restatement (Second) of Torts §343 and §343A;
- d. failed to use reasonable prudence or care in maintaining the premises, namely removing the hazardous condition from the floor and maintaining flooring and equipment in a safe condition, in violation of the Restatement (Second) of Torts §343 and §343A;
- e. failed to properly inspect the premises where Plaintiff was injured, in violation of the Restatement (Second) of Torts §343 and §343A;
- f. permitted persons, the Plaintiff in particular, as a business invitee, to traverse the floor of the store when the Defendant knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that it was dangerous to do so and involved an unreasonable risk of harm to persons so doing, in violation of the Restatement (Second) of Torts §343 and §343A;
- g. failed to warn the Plaintiff of the defect, that being the defective floor covering;
- h. unreasonably exposed the Plaintiff, a business invitee, to a dangerous condition;
- i. failed to correct, remedy, repair, and/or eliminate the dangerous condition and defect;
- j. failed to provide an alternate route so as to furnish patrons of the Defendant's supermarket with a reasonably safe area within which to walk nor to exit the Macy's Store;
- k. failed to properly investigate or vet those individuals or entities responsible for maintaining the premises in a safe condition;

- l. actively lead Plaintiff Barbara Houck directly into the path of the hazard, snare, or dangerous condition, which directly and proximately caused severe physical harm and extensive damages to the Plaintiff; and
 - m. allowed or permitted the flooring or floor covering to remain as a hazard, snare or otherwise in a state of disrepair.
26. The accident or incident in question was, in no manner or fashion whatsoever, attributable to any act or omission of the Plaintiff, as she was simply an innocent victim of utter carelessness and negligence by the Defendant.
27. The above described negligence and carelessness of the Defendant was a direct and proximate cause of the damages and injuries sustained by the Plaintiff, as set forth at length above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Barbara A. Houck demands judgment in her favor and against Defendant Macy's in an amount in excess of Fifty Thousand ($ 50,000.00) Dollars, in addition to interest, damages for delay, counsel fees, as well as costs and expenses incurred during the course of this litigation.

COUNT II

vs.

Defendant Macy's East

Negligence and Carelessness

28. Paragraphs 1 – 27 are incorporated as though the same were set forth at length.
29. The accident or incident in question was caused by the negligence and carelessness of Defendant Macy's East, in that it:
- a. failed to use due care and to employ reasonable skill in the performance of its duties and in its duty of care toward the Plaintiff;
 - b. failed to exercise the judgment, care, and skill of reasonable persons under similar circumstances;
 - c. permitted the dangerous condition and defect to be and remain upon the floor of the Defendant's premises, when the Defendant knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, of the danger involved, in violation of the Restatement (Second) of Torts §343 and §343A;
 - d. failed to use reasonable prudence or care in maintaining the premises, namely removing the hazardous condition from the floor and maintaining flooring and equipment in a safe condition, in violation of the Restatement (Second) of Torts §343 and §343A;
 - e. failed to properly inspect the premises where Plaintiff was injured, in violation of the Restatement (Second) of Torts §343 and §343A;
 - f. permitted persons, the Plaintiff in particular, as a business invitee, to traverse the floor of the store when the Defendant knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that it was dangerous to do so and involved an unreasonable risk of harm to persons so doing, in violation of the Restatement (Second) of Torts §343 and §343A;

- g. failed to warn the Plaintiff of the defect, that being, the defective floor covering;
- h. unreasonably exposed the Plaintiff, a business invitee, to a dangerous condition;
- i. failed to correct, remedy, repair, and/or eliminate the dangerous condition and defect;
- j. failed to provide an alternate route so as to furnish patrons of the Defendant's store with a reasonably safe area within which to walk nor to exit the Macy's Store;
- k. failed to properly investigate or vet those individuals or entities responsible for maintaining the premises in a safe condition;
- l. actively lead Plaintiff Barbara Houck directly into the path of the hazard, snare, or dangerous condition, which directly and proximately caused severe physical harm and extensive damages to the Plaintiff; and
- m. allowed or permitted the flooring or floor covering to remain as a hazard, snare or otherwise in a state of disrepair.;

30. The accident or incident in question was, in no manner or fashion whatsoever, attributable to any act or omission of the Plaintiff, as she was simply an innocent victim of utter carelessness and negligence by the Defendant.

31. The above described negligence and carelessness of the Defendant was a direct and proximate cause of the damages and injuries sustained by the Plaintiff, as set forth at length above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Barbara A. Houck demands judgment in her favor and against Defendant Macy's East in an amount in excess of Fifty Thousand ($ 50,000.00) Dollars, in addition to interest, damages for delay, counsel fees, as well as costs and expenses incurred during the course of this litigation.
